7.5 Post-Termination Obligations

Within two (2) calendar days of termination, the Client shall return or destroy all materials received from VGFS in accordance with written instructions. Each party's duties in respect of payment, delivery, and the destruction of materials shall survive the termination of this Agreement.

In the event of any conflict between the provisions of this Agreement and any information contained in the Promotional Materials, the provisions of this Agreement shall prevail.

VGFS reserves the right to collect from the Client such information as is necessary to fulfil its obligations under applicable Anti-Money Laundering and Counter-Terrorism Financing Laws. VGFS may disclose information obtained from the Client as required by such laws and is under no obligation to notify the Client that it has done so. VGFS may conduct all AML/CTF checks in relation to the Client as it deems necessary or appropriate.

Personal information gathered by VGFS shall be treated as confidential and shall be protected in accordance with applicable Data Protection Laws.

The Client accepts the risk that a third party may receive confidential information concerning the Client, and specifically releases and indemnifies VGFS from any claim arising out of a third party's interception, access to, monitoring of, or receipt of any communication intended for either party.

The Client acknowledges and agrees that VGFS may disclose the Client's name and other personal and financial information to its employees, representatives, officers, agents, third-party financial institutions, introducing brokers, and affiliates, as well as to governmental entities or self-regulatory authorities, or any other third-party agent or service provider for any purpose connected with offering, providing, administering, or maintaining the Company's services, or to comply with applicable Laws. The Client should be aware that, in appropriate circumstances, all communications and information concerning the Client held by VGFS may be disclosed to, and reviewed by, law enforcement agencies and regulatory authorities. The Client agrees to comply with all applicable anti-money laundering and counter-terrorism financing laws.

ARTICLE 10: ELECTRONIC VERIFICATION

The Client agrees that:

- (i) VGFS may use and disclose personal information for the purpose of electronic verification as described above; and
- (ii) it is an offence under AML/CTF laws for a Client to supply false or misleading information regarding their identity.

Such electronic acceptance shall constitute valid and binding execution of this Agreement by the Client, carrying the same legal effect as a handwritten signature.

The Client further agrees that no physical signature or paper record is required to evidence acceptance of this Agreement, and that the Introducer may retain and rely upon electronic records for evidentiary and enforcement purposes.

ARTICLE 13: NOTICES AND COMMUNICATIONS

VGFS may, to the extent of Your authorisation, send communications under this Agreement to You or Your Authorised Representative as identified in Schedule A.

Any decision made by the external consultant or adviser shall be final and binding on the Parties.

ARTICLE 15: SEVERANCE

Any provision of this Agreement that is void, illegal, or unenforceable shall be ineffective only to the extent of its invalidity or unenforceability; the remaining provisions shall continue in full force and effect.

Any present or future legislation that operates to vary the Client's obligations under this Agreement so as to adversely affect VGFS's rights, powers, or remedies (including by way of delay or postponement) is excluded, save to the extent that such exclusion is prohibited or rendered ineffective by law.

ARTICLE 16: RELATIONSHIP OF PARTIES

The Parties acknowledge that nothing in this Agreement shall be construed as establishing a partnership, joint venture, agency, fiduciary relationship, or any analogous relationship between them. Each Party operates as an independent contractor, and no Party shall have authority to bind or act on behalf of any other Party unless expressly agreed in writing. Each Party shall be solely responsible for its own operations, expenses, and obligations.

ARTICLE 17: FORCE MAJEURE

VGFS shall not be liable for any failure or deficiency in the performance of its obligations under this Agreement where such failure is attributable to a Force Majeure Event.

Where VGFS determines, in its reasonable judgment, that a Force Majeure Event has occurred, it may without prior written Notice take or omit to take all such actions as it considers reasonably appropriate in the circumstances.

ARTICLE 18: FURTHER ACTS

This Agreement may be executed in counterparts, each signed by one or more parties. If so executed, the counterparts shall together constitute a single instrument.

The Client agrees to do all things that VGFS may reasonably require (including obtaining consents, signing and producing documents) in order to bind the Client and any other person intended to be bound under this Agreement, and to demonstrate the Client's compliance with this Agreement.
